Christopher Storey

Controller

Chris's attention to detail is one the greatest strengths at Donald A. Paulone Custom Built Homes, Inc. His dedication and certified public accounting background make him the perfect man for managing the entire accounting function, but more importantly for performing budgeting, forecasting and planning functions, as well as cost and pricing analysis. Although Chris was welcomed by Donald A. Paulone Custom Built Homes, Inc. in 1998 as an accountant, he has successfully crossed over into other areas of the business, such as commercial leasing, land and building acquisitions as well as residential and commercial development. His daily involvement and "hands on approach" attitude has been a great addition to the company team.
